SADDLEBROOK LIVE Brings Puerto Rican Pride Night and Seventh Anniversary Salsa Concert to Wesley Chapel

David Atanacio & Orquesta Champán D' Barrio headline an 11 piece Salsa brava concert at Saddlebrook Resort on Saturday, November 21.

WESLEY CHAPEL, FL, October 26, 2026 - SADDLEBROOK LIVE returns to Saddlebrook Resort on Saturday, November 21, for Puerto Rican Pride Night, featuring David Atanacio & Orquesta Champán D' Barrio in a live concert celebrating the orchestra's seventh anniversary. The concert will take place in the Royal Palm Ballroom.

The recurring third Saturday series welcomed 366 guests to its September 19 opening night, according to producer Maloof Entertainment LLC. The November event brings the focus to Puerto Rican Salsa brava, live orchestral music, and a gathering for the North Tampa Bay community.

Born in New York and raised in Bayamón and Cataño, Puerto Rico, Atanacio performed as a frontline vocalist with Willie Rosario's orchestra from 2003 to 2005 and has sung backing vocals for Charlie Aponte since 2019. He now leads Orquesta Champán D' Barrio, established in 2019, continuing a musical tradition built around live horns, percussion, and vocals.

The anniversary concert also features DJ Mike Sensation (NYC) and DJ Rumbero (Philly). Professional Salsa instructor Jenny Marie will lead a beginner friendly Salsa lesson at 7:30 PM. Doors open at 7 PM, with dancing continuing until 2 AM.

The evening is presented as an All Black Affair. Wearing black is encouraged but not required. Visitors planning an overnight stay can receive 20% off eligible resort accommodations using confirmed promotional code SADDLEBROOKLIFE when booking through Saddlebrook.com.
